Explore the Northern Territory, rich in Aboriginal history and rugged beauty. Visit Darwin, a melting pot of cuisines and cultures. Discover World Heritage-listed Kakadu National Park’s ancient Aboriginal rock art and spot crocodiles in the wild. Cruise down Katherine Gorge in Nitmiluk National Park or fly over the Gorge for a bird’s eye view of the magnificent 13-gorge system. Pan for gold in Tennant Creek or stay in Australia’s outback pioneering town of Alice Springs. In the spiritual heart of Australia, you’ll see genuine outback country and experience Australia’s most recognisable icon – Uluru. Don’t miss the majestic Kings Canyon in Watarrka National Park and its rim walk for unforgettable views across the sandstone walls of the canyon.

- The world’s largest rock formation, Uluru (Ayers Rock) is in the Northern Territory. It is 10.6km around the base and 348m high.
- The Northern Territory is home to around 200,000 wild camels with one hump.
- Termite mounds are the largest non-human made structures in the world and can be found in many parts of the Northern Territory.
Good to know

Cuisine
Darwin: Darwin’s cuisine draws inspiration from its diverse mixture of cultures. Thriving on fine local produce and gourmet seafood, Darwin is home to many outstanding restaurants, quirky cafes, weekly markets, wine bars and alfresco pubs, quintessential pop-up food trucks and foodie festivals!

Shopping
Darwin: Soak up the tropical night air, photograph the famed Darwin sunset, taste the flavours of South East Asia and buy local arts and crafts at the Mindil Beach Sunset Markets (April – October). On Saturday mornings Parap Village Market delights with fresh produce, tropical dishes and local artworks, fashion and souvenirs. The Mall is a centrally located hub of activity with something for everyone; shop for Aboriginal art, Paspaley Pearls, RM Williams boots, locally-made jewellery and tropical clothing here. Casuarina Square, in the northern suburbs, is Darwin’s largest shopping complex.

Nightlife
Darwin: Whether you want to drink, dance or play, Darwin has it all - nightclubs, bars, Irish pubs, fancy wine bars, alfresco beer gardens, live music and acts, drag shows, popular DJ’s and more. You’ll find many popular watering holes along Mitchell Street in the city centre.

Darwin City Tour
See the Chung Wah Chinese Temple, Darwin Aviation Museum, the splendid Darwin Botanic Gardens and the city’s elegant colonial architecture. Continue to East Point, Stokes Hill Wharf area and the acclaimed Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory, exhibiting Indigenous art and culture, the story of Cyclone Tracy, maritime archaeology, visual arts, craft and much more.

Crocosaurus Cove
A must-see attraction when visiting Darwin, Crocosaurus Cove brings together some of the largest saltwater crocodiles in Australia and boasts the ‘world’s largest display of Australian reptiles’ and the famous ‘Cage of Death’ where you can take the plunge and come face-to-face with a crocodile for 15 minutes.

Litchfield National Park
Drive to Litchfield National Park, only a short 1.5 hour drive from Darwin. Plunge into crystal clear waterholes beneath the magnificent spring-fed waterfalls of Florence and Wangi, or soak in the gentle three-tiered cascade shaded by rainforest at Buley Rockhole. For a drier option, take the short walk through cypress pines and cycads to the Tolmer Falls viewing platform.

Kakadu National Park
Kakadu National Park is one of Australia’s best kept secrets. Take a tour to explore the timeless wonderland only a few hours from Darwin. Kakadu National Park’s pristine landscapes have changed little over thousands of years, and its ancient Indigenous culture dates back more than 50,000 years. View cascading waterfalls, rugged escarpments, aboriginal rock art, crocodiles and exotic bird life.

Nitmiluk National Park (Katherine Gorge)
The outback meets the tropics at Katherine. The Northern Territory’s third-largest town, Katherine, is on the banks of the Katherine River which flows from the nearby world-renowned Katherine Gorge (Nitmiluk National Park). Nature comes alive at Katherine Gorge as you cruise, canoe or fly along the Gorge by helicopter.
City Sights

See the best of Alice Springs! Visit the Royal Flying Doctor Museum where you can see how medical aid reaches those who live in the remote ‘outback’, the School of the Air to learn how children who cannot access schools are educated by radio and the internet, the historic Telegraph Station which marks the original site of the first European settlement in Alice Springs and Alice Springs Reptile Centre, where you can see up close some of the lizards and snakes that frequent Central Australia’s semi-arid desert, such as the Perentie Lizard and the Thorny Devil. At sunset, take in a panoramic view of the township of Alice Springs and the MacDonnell Ranges from the top of Anzac Hill.

Outback Ballooning

Your pre-dawn adventure begins as the morning light begins to illuminate the majestic MacDonnell Ranges. Day 3: Darwin – Kakadu
Breakfast. You will be collected from your Darwin accommodation at 7.30 am for your 4 day Kakadu and Katherine 4WD Tour. We head south along the Stuart highway and along the Arnhem highway into the wetlands region. Our destination is Fogg Dam Conservation Reserve. Staying at Kings Creek Station, © Tourism NT/Christopher Pollock
Heritage listed Kakadu National Park. Kakadu is the largest national park in Australia, has some of the world’s finest rock art and a variety of habitats, including floodplains and savannah woodlands.

After lunch, we then travel to the very north of the park to Ubirr, where we walk through galleries of ancient aboriginal rock art, which your guide will interpret. Also learn about bush tuckers and bush medicines before reaching the top of the plateau, where you can relax and enjoy the spectacular view over the floodplains and the Arnhemland escarpment. We finish the day with a look around the Bowali visitors information centre. Dinner tonight is at your own arrangement and expense. Overnight.

Day 4: Kakadu National Park
Breakfast. We shall make our way to Nourlangie Rock, an ancient Aboriginal shelter, where we will explore the area and the rock art. Your guide will lead you on an interpretive walk around the site, followed by Nawalandja lookout. The short hike to the lookout is rewarded by a magnificent view over the Arnhemland escarpment. Our next stop is Maguk (Barramundi Gorge and falls). Termite mounds are abundant along the dirt road that takes us to the Maguk car park and from there, we take a walk through a paperbark forest to reach the gorge. Once we reach the gorge and waterfall, we can have a refreshing swim in the plunge pool.

Finally, late this afternoon, board the sunset Yellow Waters wetlands cruise. Yellow Waters billabong is located at the end of Jim Jim Creek, a tributary of the South Alligator River. This is the largest river system in Kakadu and contains extensive wetlands, including river channels, floodplains and backwater swamps. About one third of Australia’s bird species are represented in Kakadu National Park, with at least 60 species found in these wetlands. There are also plenty of crocodiles in their natural habitat, and buffalo on the floodplains. Overnight.

Day 5: Kakadu National Park – Nitmiluk Gorge (Katherine)
Breakfast. Our first stop today is the Warradjan Aboriginal Cultural Centre, for an insight into the cultural heritage of the park. Then we travel to Gunlom (Waterfall Creek), in the very south of the park. After a scenic drive in, on an unsealed dirt road, we reach a large plunge pool at the base of the falls. You also have the option to take the walk to the top of the falls where pristine rockpools and a spectacular view await you.

Departing Kakadu through the southern entrance, we now head south to Katherine, with a stop en-route in historic Pine Creek. Our destination this afternoon is Nitmiluk Gorge, home to 13 spectacular gorges, carved out of the rock by torrential summer rains, over millions of years. Dinner tonight will be served poolside at Nitmiluk Gorge. Overnight at Nitmiluk Gorge.

Day 6: Nitmiluk Gorge (Katherine)
Breakfast. We start today with a hands on cultural experience at the Katherine Art Gallery. Activities on offer include sitting down with resident artist, Manuel who will tell you tales of tribal life, language, the hunting and gathering techniques, ceremony, weapons used and aboriginal contemporary life. Experience your own Rarrk painting with Manuel and you will also have an opportunity to participate in one of the traditional hunting activities (fire lighting, spear throwing etc.).

After lunch you’ll cruise through Nitmiluk Gorge for 2 hours, viewing the beautiful scenery and discovering the customs of the traditional owners, the Jawoyn people. We shall now travel back to Darwin, arriving at approximately 7 pm. You will be either dropped off at your accommodation in Darwin or for your onward flight back home or destination.
