It won't take long for you to fall in love with Madrid. This beautiful capital was revived by King Charles III several centuries ago and the city is still as graceful as ever. Arriving today, check in to your hotel and get settled in before meeting up with your Travel Director and fellow travelers for a look at what's to come on your Spain value tour. Venture out into the streets at sunset and watch this football-mad city really come to life. You might like to join us for an optional walking tour around the city sights with the opportunity to get your first taste of tapas at a local restaurant. You'll quickly find out why the city's lively nightlife keeps the locals up until all hours of the night.

Optional Experiences:

1. Old Madrid with a Taste of Tapas

Day 2: DAY 2: MADRID

Gear up for a busy morning of sightseeing when you visit Madrid. Your Local Specialist will reveal all the secrets behind some of the city's most famous sights, kicking things off by heading up the Gran Vía through the heart of Madrid. See the Cibeles Fountain, the Royal Palace, and the Paseo de la Castellana.

(The iconic Cibeles Fountain is surrounded by historic architecture in Madrid.)

This afternoon, you'll have some free time to spend as you like. History lovers will likely want to join our optional visit to the UNESCO-listed city of Segovia, with its Roman aqueduct and fairy-tale Alcázar, like something out of a storybook. Once you return to Madrid, you'll have another chance to discover the buzzing nightlife, which can be found spilling out into open-air cafes and pulsing plazas.

Optional Experiences:

1. Segovia's Ancient Aqueduct and Fairytale Castle
2. Dinner and Discovery in Downtown Madrid

Day 3: DAY 3: MADRID – TOLEDO – SEVILLE

You'll watch history come to life when you visit the hilltop town of Toledo today, with its ancient city walls and long legacy of traditional sword-making. Take a sightseeing tour with your Local Guide by your side, as every street reveals yet another stunning sight, including views of the cathedral and plazas.

(A skilled blacksmith demonstrates the ancient art of sword forging in Toledo, Spain, famous for its historic steel craftsmanship.)

You'll also visit a steel workshop to discover the tradition of sword-making, which dates back to Roman times. Seville is your final destination today, where you'll stay for the next two nights.

Day 4: DAY 4: SEVILLE

The sizzling city of Seville is filled with the Spanish zest for life you'll come to know and love. It's a place of beautiful monuments, fine weather, and it's also the home of the flamenco – no wonder it has been the royal family's (and thousands of travelers) favorite holiday retreat for centuries. Join your Local Specialist today to uncover some of the city's most famous sites, including Maria Luisa Park, built in 1929 for the Ibero-American exposition.

(The beautiful Parque de María Luisa in Seville offers peaceful gardens, fountains, and elegant architecture in the heart of Andalusia.)

Spend some time getting lost on purpose in the maze of lanes in Seville's Old Quarter, or opt to join a tour to the grand 14th-century Moorish Alcazar. You'll have the whole evening free to explore your way, but you can't visit Seville and not witness a fiery flamenco show – our Choice Experience will take you to the best flamenco show in town.

Optional Experiences:

1. The Moorish Alcázar and Plaza América
2. Andalusian Flamenco Show
3. Andalusian Flamenco Show and Dinner

Day 5: DAY 5: SEVILLE – GRANADA

We'll begin our journey from kings to emirs as we travel from Seville to Granada this morning. A visit to this city will take you back in time to when the Moors ruled the foothills of the Sierra Nevada, their last fortress before being exiled to North Africa. You can still see their Arab influences in the Moorish architecture and tetería tea houses and we'll show you where to look this afternoon before you head out into the cobbled streets to explore your way. Alternatively, consider joining a Choice Experience tour of the Albaicín Quarter, the city's oldest neighborhood, known as the Arab Quarter. You'll discover its Moorish history and see the fortified citadel of the Alhambra on the hilltop overlooking Granada.

Optional Experiences:

1. Albaicín and the Royal Chapel
2. Night Out in Old Granada

Day 6: DAY 6: GRANADA - GUADIX – VALENCIA

Head into the hills of Guadix this morning, where white chimneys poking out of the earth hint at a whole other world below. These cave dwellings have been home to generations of locals, and you'll have time to snap a few photos before continuing to Valencia, or 'Bah-len-thee-a' if you want to sound like you know what you're doing.

(The famous cave neighborhood of Guadix features traditional homes carved into the hillsides of Andalusia, Spain.)

On your orientation tour, your Travel Director introduces the city's greatest hits, from Estación del Norte and the Serrano and Quart Towers to Mercado de Colón and the striking City of Arts and Sciences. Later, make dinner count on a Choice Experience paella cooking class, then sit down to enjoy the results.

Optional Experiences:

1. Valencia's Golden Age Walking Tour with Horchata Tasting
2. Valencia Dinner and Discovery
3. Valencia Paella Cooking Class

Day 7: DAY 7: VALENCIA - PEÑÍSCOLA – BARCELONA

(The impressive Templar Castle in Peñíscola stands as one of northern Spain's most important medieval fortresses.)

This afternoon, join your Local Guide to uncover the best of Barcelona. Snap a pic of La Sagrada Família's jaw-dropping exterior details and drive along the stylish Passeig de Garcia. When night falls, the fun keeps going—you can choose to join a Choice Experience taking in the city lights on a drive to Montjuïc, with time for dinner at a seaside restaurant.

Optional Experiences:

1. Montjuïc Panoramic Drive with Catalan Dinner

Day 8: DAY 8: BARCELONA

It's your last full day in Spain—time to soak up all that Barcelona has to offer. You can opt to join a morning Choice Experience visit to Montserrat to see the famous Black Madonna. Tonight, share a final dinner and toast to the unforgettable moments of your Spanish adventure. Salud!
