Day 2: Day 2: Buenos Aires (B)

HD City Tour South.

Rising suddenly and dramatically out of the interminable flatness of the Pampas, Buenos Aires is a teeming, throbbing cosmopolitan city with a unique mix of European, North American, and South American elements. It is one of the world's great ports, the home of every third Argentine, and an increasingly popular travel destination. The soul of the city bears an irresistible allure to Argentines and visitors alike, its parks, cafés, streets, theatres, museums, markets, restaurants- and its homes- the elegant, the chic, the eccentric, the everyday. You will visit the most important sites of this triumph of a city. The magnificence of the Northern Quarters, Palermo and the beauty of its parks and buildings, Recoleta with its French-style architecture, bars and cafes; the imposing Colon Theater, one of the five most important opera houses in the world; Plaza de Mayo surrounded by Government House (The Pink House), The Old Cabildo (Town Hall) and the Metropolitan Cathedral; San Telmo, residence of the aristocracy until the turn of the XIX century. The colors of La Boca, picturesque quarter of Italian immigrants; and the fashion area of Puerto Madero with its many chic bars & restaurants round off this heady excursion.

Dinner & Tango Show “Aljibe” w/transfer & guide.

Overnight Stay at Hotel.

Day 3: Day 3: Buenos Aires – Iguassu (B)

Transfer Out hotel to AEP Domestic Airport.

Day 4: Day 4: Iguassu (B)

FD Argentinian Falls w/entrance fee.

At the Iguazu Falls on the Argentine side, it is possible to see the waterfalls up close. It's a beautiful walk, blending the beautiful Falls and the exuberance of the humid subtropical forest. Catwalks over the river connect with the upper, lower circuit and the devil's throat, a nature show! The walk along the catwalks is about 1,200 meters long. Delight in the spectacular balcony of the most important waterfall in the Falls, the Garganta del Diablo (Devil's Throat). Duration tour: 7/8 hours.

Overnight Stay at the Hotel.

Day 5: Day 5: Iguassu (B)

Transfer out hotel to IGU Airport.
